To join the America’s Journey for Justice march, participants should plan to arrive at the meeting locations listed below no later than 6:30am. Each morning, AJ4J march participants will have breakfast at the meeting locations and then board buses which will take us to the starting point of the march for that day. Boxed lunches will be provided for the marchers along the route. At the end of each day’s march, participants will board the buses and return to the meeting locations. Dinner will be provided at the meeting locations at 7:30pm and will be followed by the teach-in for that evening.
